MEDIA RELEASE – JANUARY 17, 2017

Grants for Youth Art Programs offered in Twentynine Palms

The Public Arts Advisory Committee (PAAC) of the City of Twentynine Palms is offering small grants to support Youth and The Arts programs in 2017.

The PAAC has a fund of $4,000 for Youth and The Arts programs being conducted in 2017. Individual grants of up to $1,000 are available, depending on the scope of the program and availability of funds.

Deadline for submitting grant applications is Monday, February 6. Grant awards will be announced the first week in April.

The PAAC's goal is to nurture, enhance, and encourage the community's participation in the arts by providing financial support for art programs for the youth of Twentynine Palms and MCAGCC.

Organizations, individuals, groups, clubs, or businesses that benefit the youth of Twentynine Palms are invited to apply. The PAAC particularly encourages cooperative ventures among cultural groups to provide programs that give youth experience in a variety of the visual and performing arts, including art, music, dance, theatre, and writing.

Complete guidelines for grant applications are available on the Art in Public Places page at www.29palms.org. The application process is relatively simple, requiring a brief written proposal describing the proposed arts program.

Grant applications can be submitted to the PAAC City liaison Jon Beard via email at jbeard@29palms.org on or before the first Monday in February. For questions or more information, contact Jon Beard at (760) 910-3888, available Monday through Thursday.

Art in Public Places and Youth and The Arts programs are administered by the Public Arts Advisory Committee of the City of Twentynine Palms.
